

ON-LINE RESOURCES FOR PATIENTS

- The Genomedical Connection has an easy to read patient brochure at http://www.genomedical.org/you\_and\_your\_family/pdfs/Brochure%20thrombophilia.3.4.08.pdf
- National Alliance for Thrombosis and Thrombophilia (NATT) is a non-profit patient advocacy group, which provides education and support. It can be found at: www.nattinfo.org. They provide:
  - Patient brochures at <http://www.nattinfo.org/brochures.htm>
- The National Human Genome Research Institute (NHGRI) provides detailed information about factor V Leiden and links to other educational resources and support groups for patients at their website <http://www.genome.gov/15015167>
- LabCorp provides a very detailed patient brochure explaining inherited thrombophilia, testing, and associated VTE risk. This brochure is written at the 12th grade reading level. It can be found at: http://www.labcorp.com/pdf/Inherited\_Thrombophilias\_Patient\_Brochure.pdf
- Other Resources can be Found at the Following Websites:
  - <http://www.fvleiden.org>
  - <http://www.protein.org.uk>
  - <http://preventdvt.org>
  - <http://www.cdc.gov/ncbddd/hbd/clotting.htm>
  - <http://www.bloodclot.org>
  - ClotAlert Resource Center 1-800-CLOT-FREE